July 2026 Program Summary and Upcoming Events:

EE staff engaged 732 participants in July through various programs including Summer Camps, BugFest, Kettle Creek for Kids, and Bog Walks. Highlights included:

- 53 Campers gaining hands-on experiences that connected them with conservation, the natural world, and each other throughout the month of July across our Get in Touch with Nature Camp, Adventure Camp, and Conservation Camp.

- Several updates to BugFest to create a more inclusive experience for sensory-sensitive audiences. We added a sensory room where families could take a break and uploaded a Social Story- created by our Summer Interns!- to our website and social media to help visitors know what to expect before attending (see photo to the right for an excerpt from the story).

- Continuing our summer Kettle Creek for Kids Summer series which is all about water! In July, preschoolers went on a color hunt in our meadow, then carefully

yellow, and

blue water together to color-match the flowers they saw.

Later, they created wind-powered boats out of recycled materials (pictured, left).

- Inviting back Robert Harvey, Director of Intensive Behavioral Health Services at KidsPeace, to give our staff some additional training on handling youth behavior issues to assist us as we finish out our last two weeks of Day Camp.

- Staff looks forward to finishing up Summer Camps and beginning preparing and planning for our Fall programs and events!
