

Elk Viewing in the Pennsylvania Wilds

September 20-22, 2022

Join us on a three day journey into the Pennsylvania wilds to view majestic elk during the prime bugling seasons. Also, stops will be made at Bald Eagle State Park, Parker Dam State Park, Sinnemahoning State Park, the PA Grand Canyon, Quehanna Natural Area, and the Elk Country Visitor Center.

Trip Includes:

- Two-nights lodging in stream front cabins in the heart of Elk Country
- Transportation
- Two breakfasts
- Two lunches
- One Dinner
- Admission to Elk Country Visitor Center

Cost:

- Singles—$340 per person, Doubles—$300 per person

(Single occupancy means private bedroom but shared bathroom. Double occupancy means private bedroom for two people and shared bath.)

For more information or to register please contact the Kettle Creek Environmental Education Center, at (570) 629-3061. Registration is limited to thirteen people.

